Alleged Lyncher

Found Not Guilty.

Huntsville, Ala., Sept. 24.—Thomas M. Higgins was acquitted to-night of the charge of murder in the first degree in connection with the lynching of Horace Maples. The case made out by the prosecution in the trial today was weak, and there was no convincing evidence connecting the defendant with the mob.

When the court met for a night session, attorneys for the defense moved to quash the indictment. Judge Speake ordered the jury to retire while the motion was argued. Higgins' attorneys moved that as there was no evidence of a convincing nature against him, the indictment be quashed. Solicitor Pettus opposed this, and asked that the jury be allowed to decide the case.

Judge Speake recalled the jury and charged them in favor of the defendant, instructing them if they believed the evidence, to return a verdict of not guilty. There was no demonstration.

The Country Newspaper.

The country newspapers in Georgia, and their editors, are noted for honesty, independence, patriotism, pride, progressiveness, and intelligence. A vein of high character runs through them. The country newspaper wherever found is an influence for good. Its mission is to contribute to the betterment of mankind. It is a power in moulding public opinion. It can always be depended upon to do its part to help protect and preserve the government. It is a better safeguard of the liberties of the people than a standing army. It is a potent factor in the material development and substantial progress of the section in which it circulates. It is an omen of success—a rainbow of progress. It is a teacher of morality, truth and honor. It would rather up-braid than to tear down. It brings many rich blessings to humanity, whereas its own financial reward is small.

In a recent address by Senator Chauncey M. Depew before the New York Press association at Manhattan Beach, he paid the following beautiful tribute to the country newspapers:

"I pay my respects to and express my admiration for the country newspapers and the country editors. His lines are not cast in places of the great and profitable organs of the metropolis, whose profits are reckoned often by the hundreds of thousands of dollars every year. But the country editor lives in and is part of his community. His virtue is not so much in what he prints as in what he refuses to print. He could easily destroy the peace of the community by admitting to his paper the scandals and gossip of the neighbors. But he stands as a censor and guardian of public morals; and I know of no conditions under which the public is appealed to in a certain measure where the utterance is so free from criticism as the general tone of the country press."—Macon News.

COMMUNICATED.

Blackshear, Ga., Sept. 21.—01

Editor Statesboro News:

We should like for you to publish a few lines in your paper in commendation of our friend and teacher, Mr. D. L. Deal, of Bulloch county, who has been our service in the capacity of a teacher for the past three months.

We all turn hearts of gratitude to Mr. Deal for his untiring efforts to awaken an educational interest and spirit that has not previously prevailed in this district of southeast Georgia.

We feel that Mr. Deal has been an instrument of value to us from a three-fold point of view:

First. He has come into a section of wrangling and dissension and organized and taught a successful term of school.

Secondly. He has shown some of the "Blue Back Friends" the fallacy of having a new school, and that cheap teachers mean work.

He has also illustrated to them the fact that a teacher who is prepared for his work is so emboldened in an atmosphere of activity until the students under his care are soon shut out from the throes of misconduct, and follow with laughter and singing along the path of duty, all seeking in common the treasure of priceless worth.

Thirdly. He has rolled away the stone from the sepulcher of wisdom and left us in sight of the long hoped for resurrection in this immediate circle.

Mr. Deal has made many friends down here whose best wishes shall follow him wherever his lot may be cast.

With the hope of securing his services again we trust the rest to the fates.

Very sincerely,
A. Patton.

Statesboro, Ga., Friday, Sept. 30, 1904

Published Tuesdays and Fridays by THE STATESBORO NEWS PUBLISHING COMPANY.

The News is turning out 8000 tickets for the election next Wednesday, and they should all find their way into the ballot box too.

The Montgomery Monitor thinks the "Befo' Day Club" business is being very much overworked. Every time a racket is heard around the hen roost now, another "Club" is discovered.—X.

The Daily Press of Georgia is still engaged in convicting hanging "The Statesboro Mob." If some of them knew how little attention will be paid to what they think about our business they would become ashamed of themselves and "Go way back and sit down."

The Fort Valley Leader, discussing the race question very sensibly says:

"We are glad to note that a large element of our colored population is squarely on the side of law and order, and against the criminal; that our most influential dairies come out squarely against the mob. Let's not forget that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. The mob will stay with us as long as its cause exists. First, remove the cause; then, and only then, if the evil persists, heroic remedies are in order. There is something vitally wrong in a system that gives the criminal a protection that the innocent victim of crime has not had. The problem is large and complex and will have to be handled from both ends."

THE ELECTION.

On next Wednesday, Oct. 5th, the election for state and county officers will be held. The ticket is a long one, but will not be hard to count, as there is no opposition ticket. The polls will be open in all the districts and at Statesboro, and every registered voter should deposit his ballot on that day. There are several amendments to the constitution to be voted on. Let the people turn out and express their choice on these amendments.

Our Cotton Market.

Statesboro is now one of the best cotton markets in the state. Last year our town received more sea island cotton, than any interior town in the world. Our cotton buyers always pay the top of the market, and now from one hundred to two hundred bales a day is brought to our market. This year about one-third of the crop is upland, and the market for this staple has been around ten cents. For sea island, the price has ranged from 19 to 20 cents. The number of bales bought here increases every year, and Statesboro leads all the towns in this section.

How He Failed.

He started out with bright prospects. He had youth and good health on his side. His life lay before him, and the future was pregnant with unbounded possibilities. The possessor of good health and young manhood had within his reach the riches and honors of the world. He could have exclaimed, the world is mine; but he saw fit to cast aside all these glittering prospects. He proceeded to wreck his health by dissipation, and threw away his young manhood, and when he was old, he realized that his life was a failure. Let the young man take care of his health, and take the advantages of youth and he cannot fail.

Local and Personal.

Mr. J. M. Denmark, of Harville, was among those who called on us during the week.

Letter to J. I. Brannen, Statesboro, Ga.

Dear Sir: Shuffert Hardware Co., Hickory, N. C. bought a car-load of paint; after selling it a few months, found out it measured seven pints a "gallon." Returned it to the maker and credited customers with what they had lost from short measure.

What do you think of a short measure paint? Don't you think it half white-wash? Half the paints are part white-wash.

Go by the name: Devoe lead-and-sinc. No whitening or clay in that; full measure besides. A gallon Devoe is worth two white-wash paint.

Yours truly, F. W. Devoe & Co.

From Irie and Arcola.

Mr. D. L. Deal kill a fine deer a few days ago.

Messrs. J. L. Hutchinson and T. B. Thorne has gone the World's Fair. Mr. Thorne informed the writer that his brother that lived in Missouri would meet him at St. Louis.

We had a good sermon at Fellowship last Sunday by Eld. D. R. McElveen.

Jas. F. Brannen has accepted a position with Dr. Floyd in his new drug store. We hope the doctor will prosper in his new enterprise and a good way to sell goods is to advertise in The Statesboro News. Enoch L. Brannen is now doing business for the News so when you see him pay him what you are due to the paper and also give him an order for bill heads and it will be appreciated by Enoch.

Mr. W. J. Brannen of our little town is sick with fever, but we hope he will soon be up again.

Miss Lizzie Burned has been visiting her cousins Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brannen of this place.

Mr. J. D. Strickland has been at Pembroke for some time looking after his business down there, but Mr. Rufus Brown is at the old stand instead.

We get the News regular and it is usually the first paper to be read. We like to patronize home industry and get the home news, first and the best way to get the news is to take The Statesboro News.

Miss Mattie Brown and brother was among those who attended church at Fellowship last Sunday.

Rev. Whitley Langston left for a trip to the World's Fair on last Tuesday. However there will be services at the Methodist church Sunday morning and night.

Friendship.

Farmers are all busy picking cotton and they have plenty to pick in this part of the county.

The sing conducted at Friendship on last Sunday by Mr. M. V. Hurey was attended by a large crowd. Plenty of dinner was served and plenty of singing. Mr. Hurey has introduced a new song book, and the boys and girls can sing.

If you want to hear good singing come to friendship.

Mr. Dalton Woods, of Statesboro, was a visitor here on Sunday.

I see in the last issue where D. Kennedy wrote a piece on stock law. Let us have it; the sooner the better.

Mr. Israel Campbell, of Sam, visited friends out here Sunday.

Mr. Walter Bird was among the visitors here Sunday.

EVERYTHING!

In making our bow to the public this season we desire first to tender our sincere thanks for the very liberal patronage you have so kindly given us. We now congratulate and rejoice with you on account of the bountiful yield of all our crops. To continue to deserve and receive your patronage we have made extra efforts to put ourselves in position to meet the growing demands of our continuous trade.

We expect to see every farmer in this county making a bale of cotton to the acre. There is nothing that will aid you so much as the celebrated Chattanooga Plows that we are now showing. Their Disc Plows will do more to build up and improve your lands than any plow made.

Next comes the Chattanooga Iron Beam Turners, which come nearer doing what the disc plow does than any other. Your money invested in either or both of these plows could not be more profitably spent. We believe in and use these plows, and hope to see every farmer using them.

Wagons and buggies. We have them for everybody. The best wagon for the money is the Chattanooga. Buggies! Buggies! Well, you all know what the Summers Barnesville Buggy is—needs no talk, and with all the desirable cheaper grades in stock all the time, you can come to us knowing that you can get what you want.

NOW BOYS!

With competent and courteous salesmen and salesladies to look after your wants we tender you a cordial welcome to our house.

Again thanking you, we are,

Yours very truly,

J. W. OLLIFF & CO.

OUR LINE OF Dress Goods, Trimmings, Gents Furnishings, Shoes, Hats, Etc. IS COMPLETE.

Never forgetting the ladies we have put in a car load of the best stove made. THE IRON KING burns less wood, cooks better and lasts longer than any other stove made—yet just as cheap. Call for the IRON KING.

OUR MILLINERY Department

Is running over. Our old stand-by, Miss Tipton, is still here, assisted by Miss Shawen of Washington, D. C. They will please you.

Our Furniture Line

is also complete—anything from a baby cradle to a ONE HUNDRED DOLLAR ROOM SUIT

SEWING MACHINES! We just handle them to complete our line—we don't want to make any money on them. If you need a machine and want a good one come look at the WHITE. You will buy one.

We also have on hand a good supply of Chattanooga Cane Mills and Syrup Pans at prices to please you.

The patient heart is a willow, the impatient heart is a dry reed. When the storm of sorrow comes the reed breaks, but the willow yields and recovers.

A Berlin paper devotes a column to a description of a newly patented lock. We want one if it is of the kind that will hold when you try to put the paste brush into it.

A man told me a few days ago that he had not counted his sheep this summer, says a writer in the Tribune Farmer. He keeps them in the black lot, about eighty rods from the barn, and has no time to look after them; and yet this man walks three miles every night for a glass of beer.

The British Medical Journal suggests that "luxuries should be taxed rather than necessities, a superfluity of fat, which is mostly the result of luxurious living, may not unfairly be regarded as a fitting object of taxation." One municipality in Sweden already taxes superfluity of fat.

Unique reports continue to amuse the clerks at the Agricultural Department. A letter was recently received addressed to the secretary asking to please send a good supply of fish seed—gold fish preferred if these were good eating, but if they were not, then any good lively fish which would grow well and produced a firm, sweet meat.

The value of the children's school courses in agriculture depends chiefly on the fitness of the teacher, says the Massachusetts Ploughman. Hence the suitability of the suggestion of Commissioner Gilman, of Maine, that normal school should state a teacher's course in agriculture to prepare them for properly teaching the subject in country schools.

How would you like to go to your summer cottage in the mountains and find a large-sized motor sitting on the porch? asks the Boston Transcript. That was the experience a Cumberland, Md., couple had. At first they thought it was a turtle, but closer examination revealed that it was a heavily body weighing about 500 pounds. They were a little startled by the discovery, but had they been in the cottage at the time the visitor struck them they would no doubt have been jarred a good deal more.

The whitish have returned to their old grounds in Lake Michigan after almost ten years' absence, the Boston Transcript states. They were driven out, so it is said, by improvident fishing, increased navigation and excessive dumping of sewage into the lake. In this, as in so many other instances, the American way of doing things proved almost fatal to an important industry. Now that the fish have once more returned to their old stamping grounds, the States specially interested ought to hold on to them by hook or crook.

The Martha Washington Hotel in New York City, conducted for the benefit of women who work, is in trouble because it has had to raise the rent of its three-dollar-a-week rooms to five dollars. Its guests say that they expect no increases in salaries, and cannot afford to pay two dollars more. Boston's model hotel for women in Franklin Square hears no such complaints, says the Boston Transcript; a working woman gets room and board there for about what her New York sisters pay for rent alone.

As a matter of fact corporations are usually controlled by those persons who own the largest minority interest, says the Wall Street Journal. Sometimes they are controlled by persons having the smallest possible ownership in them. Instances have not been rare of control by men who have actually sold all their stock, but who are still able to control and to perpetuate their control through various expedients. Thus the directors in control are usually able to secure reelection by obtaining proxies for a majority of the stock, though they may own no shares themselves. Moreover, these proxies may not always represent bona fide stockholders. They may represent merely temporary holders of the stock, such as speculators. The real investors in the stock may be numerically in a majority but practically in a minority. Thus in a large sense the question of the rights of minority stockholders, and of investors as a class,

Four Hundred for University.
The University of Georgia opened with a record breaking attendance, over 200 new men are on hand, and fully that number of old students have returned. Registration for the term will go beyond the 400 mark, establishing the record. The law department will have fully fifty men.

Cotton Goes Abroad.
Most of the cotton that has been marketed so far this season in Columbus from the neighboring sections of Georgia and Alabama has been shipped to European spinners. Warehouse receipts have been over 10,000 bales, and all of this but about 2,000 bales has been sold, the greater portion being exported.

L. and N. Enters Atlanta.
The Louisville and Nashville railroad having acquired title to vast lands beyond West End, at Oakland City, and in the vicinity of Westview cemetery, at Atlanta, are now working on the Atlanta, Knoxville and Northern extension into the city has begun. It will be pushed with all possible dispatch and it is expected that within a year the road will have an entrance of its own to the Gate City.

The Gordon Monument Fund.
The John B. Gordon Monument Association is now satisfied beyond a doubt that it will achieve in full the object of its existence, namely, to build a handsome equestrian statue of General Gordon on the capitol grounds.

While the entire fund necessary for this purpose has not yet been raised, the responses which continue to come in, though sometimes slowly, have given rise to an encouragement which amounts to a certainty of the success of the association's plans.

New Railroad Under Way.
It is reported in Hawkinsville that a well-known railway contractor and builder has been engaged to build one of the lines necessary to complete the railroad from Hawkinsville to Bainbridge. A number of short lines already exist that almost connect these two important points.

The road will traverse a two section of the county and will take in the towns of Hawkinsville, Sylvester, Ashburn, Williamson, Carlisle, Tichenor, Doern, Sale City, Pelham and Bainbridge, only a few miles remain to be filled in to complete this important through line.

Applications for Military Companies.
Within the past ten days five Georgia towns have made application to the United States War Department for military companies. They claim they have the material and that they need the protection. They are ready to organize companies in conformity with the state laws, and are urgently knocking for admission to the state military system.

Under the present law the number of infantry companies in the state service is limited to sixty, and there are now only four vacancies, two in the First and two in the Third regiments. It would be impossible, therefore, to grant all of these requests, on account of geographical location.

All of these applications will, however, be referred to the state military advisory board, which will make to the governor such recommendations as it sees fit.

Averse to Serving on Court.
Numerous requests have been received by Governor Terrell from the members of the court martial appointed by him to try Captain R. M. Hitch to be relieved from serving on the court. Colonel Garrard has already been relieved on account of conflicting official duties, and Major W. W. Williamson, of Savannah, has been appointed to take his place. Major A. H. DeVaughn, commanding officer of the Augusta battalion of the Georgia state troops, has also been asked to be relieved from serving on the court martial, declaring that it would greatly interfere with his business. Governor Terrell announces that he has received a number of other requests from members who desire to be relieved, but that he will hardly grant them.

their leading to the enactment of legislation by congress which would take the matter out of our hands, and cause the offenders to be tried in the United States courts. Of course that would be interference with states' rights, but a republican congress would seek to justify it on the ground that the state courts had failed to afford the remedy.

Daily Suggests Prosecutions.
Judge Daily, of the middle circuit, who tried the negroes, Paul Reed and Will Cato, who were taken from the court room and burned by a mob after they had been convicted and sentenced, was in Atlanta Saturday morning, and called on Governor Terrell at the state capitol.

Judge Daily announces that his court will convene on the first Monday in October, and that he will charge the grand jury that it is its duty to indict the men who took part in the burning of the two negroes and have them brought to justice.

This announcement on the part of Judge Daily, following the declaration of Governor Terrell that he will lay the entire testimony brought up by the court of inquiry before the grand jury, is a very significant one, and indicates that there will be a vigorous effort to apprehend and prosecute to the full extent of the law all who may have had a part in taking the negroes from the hands of the law.

To Establish Cotton Warehouses.
The effort to establish a number of cotton warehouses throughout the south was given a substantial lift the past week, when a number of prominent southern cotton men met in Atlanta for a conference on the subject.

The purpose of these gentlemen is to construct in large cotton centers standard, up-to-date brick warehouses in which the producer can place his product at a minimum charge for storage and insurance, and not be forced to throw his cotton on the market as soon as it is ginned. As a most important part of the plan it is proposed to organize a company with headquarters in New York, to be called the "National Storage Warehouse Company," with a capital of $1,000,000.

The purpose of this company is to take the receipt from the southern warehouse and negotiate it in the east at the rate of a very low rate of interest for such farmers as may desire to borrow upon their crops.

It is conservatively estimated that the saving to the southern farmers from storage and insurance charges and reduction in interest will be more than one hundred millions per annum.

Railroad Commission Injured.
The Georgia railroad commission and the Central of Georgia Railway Company have been restrained from putting into effect the rates prescribed in circulars 301 and 302, issued by the railroad commission. The restraining order was issued Saturday morning by Judge W. T. Newman, of the United States court, northern district of Georgia, in Atlanta. The commissioners and the Central of Georgia are ordered to show cause at 10 o'clock in the morning, Saturday, October 8, why the injunction should not be made permanent.

Circular 301 was issued on September 16. It makes sweeping reductions in rates on manufactured goods from Atlanta to Athens, Augusta, Macon and Columbus. Circular 302 was issued on September 21 and reduces the rates on ship from all stations on the Atlantic Coast Line railroads to Atlanta to 17 cents and to 15 cents to Columbus. The Atlanta rate is the same that obtains to Birmingham, Montgomery and Selma.

The application for injunction was filed by the Central Trust Company, of New York, which owns bonds of the Central.

The principal allegations of its bill are that the Georgia railroad commission in a recent order had stated that the freight rates within the state were just and reasonable, but that the interstate rates from certain points outside of Georgia were too high; that the reduction in circulars 301 and 302 were made for the purpose of forcing a reduction of the interstate rates.

LUDDEN & BATES SOUTHERN MUSIC HOUSE

Makes this Startling Offer.

This famous house has but one price. That is fixed and Staple. When an offer is made to cut it down $25.00 it means that purchasers gain just that much

The Ludden & Bates guarantee back the offer and the piano, which makes both as good as minted gold. This great offer is open to any and every one who wants a piano. Not until December 1 will it be withdrawn.

All who take advantage of the offer we have made of a $25.00 coupon get a guess on the number of sales. If you buy a piano now we give you $25. The following coupon tells the story:

CUT THIS OUT.

Now is the time to buy. You have a choice of the famous CHICKERING, MATHUSHEK, IVERS & POND, LUDDEN & BATES, LESTER & KOHLER & CAMPBELL Instruments.

Nowhere else could you get such famous makes for such low prices.

This is good for $25 on the purchase of a piano.

This is good for $25 on the purchase of a piano.

Mail this to

This offer is good up to December 1.

This does not mean that Ludden & Bates withdraw their proposition to give away a piano and an organ on Jan. 1, 1905. That proposition stands, but you are to have $25.00 given you on the purchase price of a piano and get a chance to secure your instrument free by guessing at the number of sales of pianos and organs made by Ludden & Bates during 1904.

The coupon tells the story. Cut it out, for it is worth its face value to you if you want a piano and buy it from us before December 1. It applies to any piano in the house except those in special sales.

The Coming Election

At the election tomorrow there is to be voted upon several constitutional amendments. As there is no opposition to any of the state house officers, judges, solicitors or any of our county officers, there will be of course no confusion on this line.

There are four constitutional amendments to be passed upon. The first one refers to the tax rate for the state expenses. At present the rate is unlimited and no matter how much money the legislature appropriates, the governor has to levy a state tax high enough to raise the money. But if this first amendment is carried, hereafter the tax rate cannot be higher than five mills, no matter how much the legislature should appropriate.

If you desire to vote for this amendment, run your pencil through the section beginning "Against ratification, etc.," leaving the section "For Ratification, etc.," on your ticket. If you fail to scratch out either "For Ratification, etc.," or "Against Ratification, etc.," of any one of the amendments, your vote will not be counted as to that special amendment.

The second amendment refers to the establishment of public schools by local taxation. Under the present law, upon the recommendation of two grand juries, or the corporate authorities of any town, there must be submitted to the vote of the people whether there will be established in that county or town a public school by local taxation, and if two-thirds of the voters vote for the public school, it shall be established. If this amendment is carried it is my understanding that instead of having to get a two-thirds of the registered voters, only two-thirds of those voting will be required. As the acts of the last legislature have not been published yet we can not be positive on this point.

The third amendment refers to the increase in the number of representatives, should the people vote to have eight new counties. In other words, if the people vote to have eight new counties, this amendment provides that there shall be eight new representatives.

The fifth amendment is the bill to increase the number of counties in the state eight more, if you favor this, mark out the word "Against Ratification, etc.," if you are against it mark out "For Ratification."

Getting Ready For Court Martial.

Captain Cone and Lieutenant Griner are getting ready to face the charges preferred against them by the court of inquiry. The court martial will convene in Savannah next Monday. They have employed Col. Grover & Johnston to defend them. It is sort of a hardship to be dragged up and tried in a distant county and have to bear your own expenses, but such is military law. It is hoped that the two officers named will come out all O. K. as we believe they should.

COMMUNICATION.

Mr. Editor: I will give my views on the fence law, we can't have any stock without people would fix their fence and quit shooting their neighbors cows. There are several neighbors mad about a hog going through an old fence rotten down. Every fall court looks at the cases about shooting cows.

The tenants are tired of fixing the old rotten fences and weeding it out to protect it from fire. You can make enough on the fence rows to feed what stock we have now. Think of the children sick from padding over the woods hunting calves in the dew. It is no use for me to write any more, I would write on it until night.

GEORGIA MARRIAGES SAID TO BE ILLEGAL

Augusta, Sept. 26.—An attorney here has discovered that there existed in Georgia many years ago, and in force as late as 1884, a law requiring every male applicant for a marriage license to give a bond to the county, showing that he was financially able to properly support the woman he was intending to marry. At different times a different sum was named, ranging from 500 pounds sterling to $500.

Later research revealed that this law was never repealed and consequently that all marriages made since '64 are not strictly legal.

Prominent attorneys say that all kinds of complications may ensue.

Echo

Rev. W. B. Addison has just closed a series of meetings at Oak Grove which resulted in an outpour of great blessings upon many. No one was added to the fold, however, but the stirring words of the preacher aroused many from their lethargy.

Brother Davis, of Statesboro, visited us Sunday and gave us an excellent Sunday school lecture. We hope he will visit us again soon.

Rev. R. L. Johnson preached a very impressive sermon Sunday and was attentively heard by all. Mr. E. G. Hendrix has been very sick but is convalescent.

Mrs. Geo. W. Hendrix has been seriously sick for a few days but is better. It is hoped that she will recover soon.

"How Is This?"

A certain R. F. D. carrier that goes out from Statesboro says that he met a man the other day who asked him to give him the road. Now reader, what do you think of such a man as that? This carrier, if he does carry the U. S. mail, will give half the road and more if the other party can't give his share.

Respectfully, R. F. D. C.

The Republicans Have Fear.

New York, Sept. 27.—"As matters stand now we are likely to lose the House of Representatives." This statement by Representative Joseph W. Babcock, of Wisconsin, chairman of the republican national congressional committee to the Courier-Journal correspondent, was not made for the purpose of scaring funds out of reluctant campaign contributors, but was merely his estimate of the situation after a calm survey of the entire field.

"All sorts of things may happen in the next six weeks. Our democratic friends are just beginning an active campaign. Parker has been here in New York, and has stirred up the democracy in this city into a unanimity of effort such as has not been seen here in over ten years."

"I tell you what it is," said the republican chairman, as he twisted in his revolving chair and stroked his beard ominously, "if we don't look out they'll skin us." "We have only to lose fifteen districts to lose the House," said Mr. Babcock. "There are peculiar conditions in much more than that number of districts in every campaign. This year the confusion outside of general politics, and entirely independent of the national ticket, is even greater than is usually the case."

"In 1898, after McKinley had been triumphantly elected two years before and in the excitement of war time, we carried the House by a bare majority of thirteen, which is plenty to do work with when you get to legislation, but is altogether too close for comfort when you are hunting a campaign. In 1900 we ran our majority up to thirty-eight. Two years ago we dropped down to about thirty, where the majority now stands, making allowances."

"If the democrats carry fifteen districts which are now represented by republicans they will wipe out our majority in the House entirely. You can readily see that in the natural course of events, without regard to the campaign work to be done by either party, the chances favor the democrats. With an election held right now we would probably elect Roosevelt and lose the House."

A Reasonable Advice

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by all druggists.

Aaron Rosello

Died a few weeks ago in North Carolina. He resided in Statesboro several years and made many friends. He was a man of excellent character, true friend and good citizen. May he rest well.

One of Many

H. A. Tedale, of Summerton, S. C., suffered for twenty years with piles. Specialists were employed and many remedies used but relief and permanent good was found only in the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. This is only one of the many, many cures that have been effected by this wonderful remedy. In buying Witch Hazel Salve it is only necessary to see that you get the genuine DeWitt, made by E. C. DeWitt & Co. in Chicago, and a cure is certain. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures all kinds of piles, cuts, burns, bruises, eczema, tetter, ringworms, skin diseases, etc. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

No Before Day Clubs Morning News

We have already expressed the opinion that there are no Before Day clubs in this or any other state. A very careful examination of witnesses in the Before Day club case at Talbotton was made by Judge Raines of that place on Tuesday, but no evidence was elicited that supported the charge that the defendants were connected with such a club, and yet a great many people in and about Talbotton were quite satisfied they had found a sure-enough Before Day club.

It seems the only foundation for the charge against the negroes arrested was a story told by a negro woman who was at outs with some of the men accused. And so it has been in every case where an attempt has been made to show the existence of such clubs. It seems, from the efforts made to locate clubs of this kind, that there was real anxiety to prove they have an existence, whereas the anxiety should be to show they haven't, unless there is evidence to the contrary.

The whites and blacks would get along a great deal better together if there wasn't so much suspicion. The lawlessness of one or two negroes in a community is made an excuse of suspecting that all of the negroes in that community are banded together to do an injury of some sort to the white people. As a general thing there are always a few hot-headed white men who want to make a raid on the negroes. Consequently we have reports of Before Day clubs and of negro uprisings for which there is no real foundation.

There are no doubt bad negroes in every community in the state, but the number is small. We know there are bad negroes from such horrible crimes as that in Bulloch county, but there were only two or three negroes concerned in that crime. It is safe to say that nine-tenths of the negroes of Bulloch county are law-abiding, and doubtless that proportion holds good in about all the counties of the state. But because there are a few bad negroes in every community it doesn't follow that there are Before Day clubs or societies of negroes whose object is to murder and rob white people. Let us find evidence of the existence of such clubs before arresting negroes on the charge of being connected with them. By assuming there are such clubs we shall alarm people and have the country districts throughout the state in a condition of unrest, and farmers will have a harder time to get labor than they are having at present.

A Well Known Traveling Man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who ask for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason of this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by all druggists.

Ignorance Inquiry.

We are informed that the Republican Congressional Committee will meet in Savannah within the next few days when a candidate will be named to oppose Col. R. E. Lester for congress from this district.

Rigdon May Run

It is understood that there is a very strong possibility that Postmaster D. B. Rigdon, of this city, will be offered the nomination of his party.

Mrs. Georgian Barnes Passes to Her Reward.

On Friday night, at her home in west Statesboro, after an illness of several weeks, Mrs. Georgian Barnes passed peacefully over the river. Her death had been momentarily expected for some time and created no surprise to her family and friends. The interment was made Saturday afternoon at Eureka cemetery, where the funeral was conducted by Rev. Mr. Chambers.

Vote For The New County Amendment Tomorrow.

When you go to cast your ballot tomorrow you will notice a number of constitutional amendments to be passed on by you, one of which is a bill to increase the number of counties in the state to 145 instead of 137 as at present. This will add eight more counties in the state. They are to be created in different sections where there are hardships on the people to attend court, by being compelled to go a long distance at considerable expense. We believe that there are at least that many meritorious communities in the state where it will only be furthering the end of justice to allow them a county site.

As to Pugilism

After a great deal of preliminary palava, continuing for months, as to the respective merits of Jeffries and Monroe, as heavyweight prize fighters, the two men came together in San Francisco before a crowd so large that there was $20,000 left in the money box. Jeffries, the world's champion, won the most of this amount in the short space of four minutes. He made such a quick overthrow of his opponent, bruising him severely and knocking him into ineffectuality, that one has cause to wonder how anybody could have gained the notion that Monroe was at all fit to stand before his antagonist. Was it merely another fake, devised by shrewd men to gain the money of the public? In recent years there have been so many instances of few-round mills without anybody being seriously hurt that the public has much reason to suspect chicanery, though not necessarily on the part of the fighters themselves. The sport has undoubtedly fallen into the hands of decadence and the sooner it is abolished altogether the better.

California is about the only state left where actual prize fighting is permitted, through the grace of state and municipal authorities. It is no longer tolerated in Great Britain and France, and it never was in favor in Germany, Italy, Spain or other European countries. People have learned that in baseball, football, tennis, yachting, rowing, trap-shooting, golf—sports which involve no brutality whatever—that they can find pastimes of the most exciting character, without the loss of self-respect. Games of baseball and football, for example, draw crowds of 80,000 and 40,000 people frequently and yet to them is attached no gambling feature whatever. They are creative and diverting in the best sense. Their popularity is a distinct attestation of a high degree of civilization—the evolution from the prize-fight and bull fight, in which the award depended upon the relative destructive powers of the contestants. Therefore it would be well for California to join with the other forty-four states and thereby abolish pugilism altogether. It was never an American sport, as a matter of fact, and the sooner we hear the last of it the better.

Mr. Wash Moore died last Friday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Hamp Edwards, in Bryan county. He was about seventy-five years old and was born and raised in Bulloch county.

COMMUNICATION

Mr. Editor: I have noticed a fault that seems to be common with a great many people, and I don't think that they are hardly conscious of the wrong there is about it. (I can't say that I am not guilty to some extent myself.) If my neighbor, my friend, my husband or my wife as the case may be, treat me in a way that I am not willing to bear, and have treated me wrong and I go to them and tell them that I don't think it right to do that, and ask them not to do so any more. Suppose it is your brother, sister, or near relative of some kind that I make complaint to and against, and it continues until you learn of the particulars, and in your honest judgment you don't think they have treated me right, but when they go to you for advice and say that thus and so is the case and I am not willing to do otherwise,

You, then being in their presence, rather than to act honestly and conscientiously and try to show them their error and bring back peace and justice, will pretend to agree with them, and rather encourage their course and cause them to continue in their unmerciful way because you don't boldly condemn it, when perhaps just a little faithful and friendly reasoning on the subject, might cause them to repent and correct a wrong that they had not understood before.

Undoubtedly a great many people must not realize the importance of being faithful with every body, under all circumstances, and at all times. Let us all try to be that way and relieve the blessings of such living.
